Etiquette by Evelyn Established by Evelyn Cannata in Naples

NAPLES (August 22, 2019) -- Etiquette by Evelyn has been established by Evelyn Cannata, a Naples-based national and international business consultant. Etiquette by Evelyn provides individuals and organizations with consulting services regarding social and business ethics, creating and polishing brand identity, and international cultural differences.

Evelyn Cannata started her career in New York, working in the medical field and corporate development. She relocated to Naples in 2004 with New York-based clients including Tribeca Events' "Autism Speaks to Wall Street," an annual celebrity chef gala. In Naples, Cannata has lent her expertise to Home & Design Magazine, Naples International Film Festival from conception to Artis-Naples ownership, the NaplesNEXT Ideas Festival, and Silverspot Cinema. She has volunteered for organizations and events including Naples Community Hospital and the Naples Winter Wine Festival.

Cannata currently serves on the board of the Latchkey League.
